VIRTUAL PROGRAM

Meet Your Judges

Madelyn Micklesen

Originally from Racine, Wisconsin, Madelyn Mickelsen began studying dance at the age of six. After twelve years of recreational and competitive training, she continued into professional dance training and graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point obtaining two Bachelor of Arts degrees in Dance and Arts Management. In addition, she has studied under dancers from the Joffrey and Milwaukee Ballet, Giordano Dance Chicago, Hubbard Street, the Verdon Fosse Legacy, and the Radio City Rockettes. She has also traveled nationally and internationally as a backup dancer for up-and-coming musical artists and has been involved and featured in numerous projects and productions across the Midwest and Tri-State area. Her choreographic works have been showcased and produced in various performances, showcases, festivals, and for adjudication at the American College Dance Association. Currently based in New York City, Madelyn is continuing to train and further pursue her career.

Blake Balathunis

Blake A. Balathunis is a professional dance educator, adjudicator, and gymnastics coach from the Western Massachusetts area. He has over 16 years worth of prestige dance training from several top rated dance schools in Western Massachusetts and elite gymnastics training from Chicopee Gymnastics. When Blake was thirteen he toured for two years up and down the east coast on "The Shakers Dream Tour" with D.R.E.A.M. Studios performing Shakespeare plays with modern day twists. At age fifteen Blake received the 3T Triple Threat Award which gave him the opportunity to perform for a one week dance and theatre summer intensive in Montgomery, AL under the direction of film actress and theater star Tanea Stewart. Blake is a graduate from Greenfield Community College with both a certificate & degree of the arts in Dance. He now currently judges for several competitions across the US.

Ryan Kelly

Ryan Kelly began dancing when he was very young. Over the years, he focused his training in ballet, jazz, contemporary, tap, and hip-hop. Ryan grew up as a competition kid and went on to attend Columbia College Chicago to earn his Bachelor's degree in Cinema Arts and Science, and started dancing professionally. He has performed behind major pop and hip-hop artists such as Dumbfoundead, Coolio, Jennifer Hudson, Patti LaBelle, and more. He has performed in multiple ballet productions including Von Heidecke's Nutcracker. He competed with Puzzle League in professional level dance competitions such as World of Dance and won first place. He also worked for the Chicago Bulls as a dancer in 312 Crew. He is currently working in Chicago as a dancer, teacher, and film editor.

Jessie Nash

Born in Chicago, Illinois, Jessie Nash developed an inspiration for the art of dance. In the Chicago suburbs, Jessie studied various types of dance. Of all the styles she trained in, her strongest passion grew for lyrical and jazz dancing. During her dance career Jessie was awarded with multiple scholarships, and remarkable opportunities. Revolution Dancewear selected her for their team where she started modeling dancewear and dance costumes. She can also be found in Reverence Dancewear and Revolution Dancewear showcases and print. Jessie has taken the stage with Dupree Dance All-Star, Las Vegas Showcase, and many more. Today she is happily joining the Precision Arts Competition team where she continues to pursue her passion for teaching dance master classes to kids who share the same love for dance.
